Note: In years past we have had a round robin doubles tournament open to invitees of both sexes. Since that arrangement has proven to be so successful, we are using that format again this year. Again, the only exception to the "Invitees only" rule will be that you and your spouse may play together if you believe you are a competitive team; in that case please let us know by May 1. All other participants will be paired by the tournament director. Of course, non-playing members of your family are encouraged to attend.
